DRUM TUITION

13th January 2020

Dear Parent/Guardian

Your child has expressed an interest in learning or continuing to learn to play the Drum with the visiting instrumental teacher.

I am writing to formally offer them a place. It may mean missing approximately 20 minutes of lesson time each week.

As you know the school has always subsidised instrumental lessons. We are still committed to doing this and will continue to contribute to the cost of the specialist teacher. The current charge is £43.45 for the term (11 weeks at £3.95 a session) or £19.75 for the first half term (5 weeks at £3.95 a session) then £23.70 for the second half term (6 weeks at £3.95 a session). Lessons begin week commencing 13th January

Please note that because we are charged for the tutor's time, not for individual lessons, refunds cannot be given for non-attendance of any music lessons.

Please fill in the slip below to signify your consent and indicate payment method. Return it to school, with your payment, as soon as possible. Because we are aiming to become a cashless school we would rather you pay via parent pay (please allow a few days for me to register the details on your account).

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J James
